Hot Topic: Mandated Reporter Training \(Part Deux\) .....Brandon Mejia

Last month we went over California Assembly Bill 506 (AB506) that requires that every volunteer leader in a youth-serving organization be trained as a mandated reporter. We also showed you the ways that Scouting is helping us comply. Come learn THE LATEST UPDATES about how to complete this training and getting properly registered.

The publication of 2022 Journey to Excellence scorecards was delayed. The 2022 scorecards for Packs and Troops are now available here. Final versions of these scorecards will shortly be added to the unit scorecards webpage. Those for Crews, Ships, and Posts are being prepared and also will be added to the unit scorecards webpage shortly.

Safety Moment: First Aid Kits .....Pierre Landry

At least once a year, you should review the materials in your first aid kits. We will provide some tips on different things you might consider adding to yours so you can be ready "to help other people at all times."

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Cub Scout Leader Breakout: Getting Parents Involved ..... Maureen Brown

Most parents say they are willing to help out, but then why don't we have more Cub parents who are volunteers? Come learn some interesting approaches to getting that help, and please feel free to share your tried-and-true techniques, too.

Scouts BSA Leader Breakout: Outdoor Ethics .....Pierre Landry

One of our eight methods of achieving The Aims of Scouting is the Outdoor Program. This month, we will discuss how to move from slogans and codes to helping the troop's youth leaders put those ideas into actions that protect our outdoor classrooms.
